SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for April 23-29 Lesson 5
Subject: Christ, The Deliver From Sin.
"If a judge pardons and releases a thief who has deserved the gallows, this is abrograting the law through grace If, now, the thief were rashly to conclude and boast: I am now under grace and may do as I please. for now there is no law of which I need be afraid - who would put up with such a fellow?' Martin Luther.
Scripture Text: ' Now being made free from sin and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life". Romans 6:22.
The Christian does not look for salvation legalistically, as if he could be saved by his own works of obedience ... He acknowledges that he is a transgressor of the divine law, that in his own strength he is wholly incapable of fulfilling its requirements that he justly deserves to be under its condemnation, and surrenders himself through faith in Christ to the grace and mercy of God. Then by the grace of God . . . his sinful past is forgiven and he receives divine power to walk in newness of life. When a man is under law; despite his best efforts sin continues to have dominion over him because the law cannot set him free from the power of sin. Under grace, however, the struggle against sin is no longer fruitless but but a certain triumph". – S.D. A. Bible Commentary, on Rom. 6:14.
Lesson Outline – Part I. Sin Not To Reign, Rom. 6:12,13. "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as an instruments of unrighteousness unto to sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.' Part 2. A Wonderful Promise Rom. 6:14,15. "For sin shall not have dominion over you; for ye are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.' Part 3. From Servants of Sin to Servants of God. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleaness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants of righteousness unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life'. Part 4.

Marriage Law Binding For Life

Rom. 7:1-3 "Know ye not, brethren (for I speak to them that know the law) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then, if, while herhusband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband be dead, she is fall from the law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man." Part 5. Carnal Nature And The Law. Rom. 7:13-16. ' Was then that which is good made death unto me. God forbid. But sin, that it good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding ly sinful. For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, sold undersin. For that which I do I allow not; for what I would that I not; - but what I hate that do. I. if then I do that which I would. I consent unto the law that it is good. Part 6. A Clash of Laws. Rom. 7:- 17-20. "Now then it is no more that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. (That is my flesh) dwelleth no good thing; for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not, for the good I would I do not; but the evil which I would not that I do, now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me." What conflict often occurs in the life of a professed Christian? . . "So will it be with all who behold Christ. The nearer we come, and the more clearly we discern the purity of His character, the more clearly shall we see the exceeding sinfulness of sin, and the less shall we feel like exalting ourselves.' The Acts of the Apostles, page 561.
Sabbath School – 10:00 a.m.
Worship Service – 11:15 each Sabbath. A hearty welcome is extended to all people. COME!

SCOUTS HIKE AND 'CLEAN UP'

Appomattox Boy Scout Troop 546 began their S.O.A.R. (Save Our American Resources) project by making a five mile hike around Holiday Lake on April 1st. The troop had 18 boys to turn out Sat. for the hike. The purpose for this hike was to clean the trail around the lake of litter and brush. The scouts gathered six large bags of paper, bottles and cans, and moved brush and fallen trees off the trail.
After the hike the scouts prepared their evening meal for themselves and their guests. For the months of April, May and June the scouts will be cleaning up Appomattox County along with other beautification projects.

DIAL GOOD NEWS 352-7900

Modernistic Club News Bulletin

The meeting of the Modernistic Club was very much enjoyed Fri., April 21, at 6 p.m. Dinner was served to the members and guests at 6p.m. sharp. A very delicious "fried chicken" dinner with all the trimmings was served by the hostess, J. C. Webb.
Immediately following the dinner hour president Hamlet called the meeting to order for a brief and informative business meeting. Plans were formulated for the spring activities to be held in May. The club will have a get together meeting in May to complete plans for the club's year social program. After the business session was over, the president turned the meeting over to hostess Webb. The regular game "Bingo" was played by members of the club.
Games were won by Messdames: Charlie Williams, 1st prize; T. W. Hamlet, 3rdprize; and Miss H. B. Stevens, 2nd prize.
Birthdays were observed for the month: T. W. Hamlet and H. B. Stevens, who received some lovely gifts from members of the club.
Guests for the evening were Messres Charlie Williams, and Julian Hamlet who seemed to have had an enjoyable evening with the Modernistics.
Mrs. C. S. Turner visitedfor the first time Friday, the 21st, since the new baby arrived, in the home of the Stevens. The visit was especially very much, even though, she was on business.
A very large Sunday School was held Sunday, April 23, at Galilee Baptist Church. The lesson was explained well by Rev. Lawing on the subject, "The Witnessing Fellowship." Helpful information was gained by those who came to Sunday School.
In, and out of town, the weekend.
The Tanner brothers, Daniel, and McKinley, visited their father and friends in the county this week.
Recent visitors in the home of Mrs. Louise Watson, was her sister and brother-in-law,from Bluefield, W. Va. While here, they visited their aunt, Mrs. Mary Davis, who was a patient in Lynchburg General Marshal Lodge Hospital.
Mrs. Davis has returned home from the hospital at this writing she is reported doing nicely at her home here, with her husband, Mr. Tommie Davis.
Mesdames Genevieve Holmes along with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. West, attended a formal at the National Guards Armory, in Farmville, Va. Friday evening. The affair was well attended and a very enjoyable evening was spent.
Miss E. H. Jordan spent the week end in Farmville, Va. with friends.
The pastors' aid Ladies Club of Galilee Baptist Church will be looking for you on the first Sunday in May at 3:00 p.m. This will be the twenty-first annual Woman's Day program.
"See you next week"!

Nice Souvenir!

C. P. McCormick (above), spending a week's vacation in Appomattox county, bagged this twenty-pound gobbler on Tuesday morning. Mr. McCormick has a home here. He likes the climate, the people and the HUNTING, obviously! There were other reports this week of nice-size gobblers taken by hunters for a holiday-type dinner and plenty of "hunter's tales" for some time to come.

HENRY PENNY HD CLUB

The Henry - Penny Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Webb on last Wednesday night, with nine members present. After the inspiring devotions, the meeting was conducted in the usual manner. After the meeting, Mrs. Johnson gave a demonstration on "Making Yeast Rolls". Mrs. Johnson also was host to help build up our treasure. We enjoyed having Mrs. Johnson with us.
Mrs. Webb served us a delicious repass. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Elnora Scruggs on May 24, 1972.
